Color Body Glazed Porcelain

Mesquite | Hexa Mesquite

An immersion in the rainforests that led to Africa, more specifically the island of Madagascar. A romantic infusion of characteristics defined by the climatic variations of Africa, and a color pallet inspired by North America.

Madagascar is a porcelain wood created from Pallisandro boards, also known as Rosewood. Offered in three tones representing the stages of life of the woods and traditions of North America, Mesquite, Burn and Driftwood, Madagascar is the porcelain wood for the whole house.
